Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore,

Sir,

Re:- Transfer of the Inam lands held by the Virabhadra Chatram, a defunct institution in Hiriyur Taluk, to some other deserving institutions.

I have the honour to state that the Ahobala Chatram in Hiriyur Taluk had been endowed with 10 survey numbers of Hanalikere and 15 survey numbers of Bharamapura in Hiriyur Taluk as inam lands for its support, but after the institution became defunct, all the survey numbers were reverted to Government. Out of these 27 inam survey Nos. 18 survey numbers situated in Hiriyur village were consequently transferred in Government Order No.1828-313/Muz.285-42-4 dated 23-6-19[illegible] to the two institutions, viz., Sri Satyanarayanaswami Temple and Sri Venkataramanaswami Temple at Hiriyur and the tenure of the lands was altered from Dharmadaya into Devadaya.

2. The remaining 9 survey numbers of the defunct institution in Bharamapura village are being looked to by the Revenue Authorities and the applicants are being asked to the General Muzrai Inspector now proposes for transferring these inam survey numbers to the following muzrai institutions noted in the margin [illegible] as shown therein. Out of these, the first three institutions are village ones and the last two institutions are minor ones.

3. The Amildar reports that the inam lands of the first two institutions are lying fallow due to [illegible] by the tenants for cultivation. Further, these institutions have no other source of permanent income. The expenses required for Nithyakatle, Archakatle and other items for these institutions are being met out by the Devadaya

The other village institution, viz., Sri Anjaneyaswami Temple at Javanagondanahalli is reported to have got an annual income of Rs 26/-. As regards the income and expenditure of the two minor institutions, copies of the sanctioned scales are enclosed herein for kind perusal. The records of these two minor institutions are also very meagre. The total annual income of Sri Venkatarayaswamy Temple has fallen below Rs 100/- and as per rules, it cannot be continued as a minor one, unless the necessary improvements.

4 In view of the Amildar's request for transferring the inam lands in question to Sri Anjaneyaswami Temple of the place and also to Sri Muthyalamma Devi Temple of Kanakadevagere village. But these two temples are not Hereditary Institutions and further are not supported by any endowments made by private or public subscriptions. In such, no recommendation can be made in this respect.

5 All the five institutions to which the inam lands in question are proposed to be granted are rural ones and further, are reported to be very popular, and deserving of help. The Sub-Division Officer therefore agrees with the proposals of the Amildar and recommends for granting the request in question to the institutions proposed by the Amildar.

6 In the above circumstances, I request that the remaining 15 inam lands in question may be transferred to the institutions noted therein for their temple affairs from Dharmadaya into Devadaya. The enquiry report dated [illegible] with the Chitaldrug Sub-Division Officer's [illegible] are enclosed.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
